Olympic Rules

Each Olympic team is comprised of 2 members. In the event that one of the first two team members are unable to make the competition, the alternate listed above will substitute. The competition will be a test of trade show branding, trade show skills and abilities and trade show knowledge as each team must navigate through the EACA Showfloor Obstacle Course in the shortest time possible. Winners will be determined by taking the aggregate of both team members time through the obstacle course, and then subtracting any time bonuses, or adding any time penalties. All EACA Judges decisions are final.

Eligibility and Prizes

All individuals who make their living by servicing exhibitors on the showfloor are eligible to enter the Leadman Olympics. Teams can be comprised of leadmen, management, or a combination of a leadman and management. Prizes will be awarded to the First, Second and Third Place finishers. First Prize will be a $100 value to each team member, Second Prize will be a $50 value to each team member, and Third Prize will be a $25 value to each team member.

Contestants Waiver and Release

We, the Olympics contestants, in consideration of being allowed to participate in the EACA Showfloor Olympics, and intending to be legally bound, do hereby waive, release and forever discharge any and all rights, actions and claims which we or our heirs, executors or assigns, may have against the EACA, National Trade Productions, TSEA, the Washington Convention Center and all of their respective officers, directors, trustees, agents, employees, representatives, successors, assigns and affiliates for death, injury, loss and any and all damages which we may sustain and/or suffer in connection with our participation in the Showfloor Olympics. We are physically fit and participate in this activity at our own risk.
